REMARKABLE SUCCESS

Of a New Catarrh Cure.

A large and constantly increasing majority of the American people are catarrh sufferers. This is not entirely the result of our changeable climate, but because modern investigation has clearly proven that many diseases, known by other names, are really catarrh. Formerly the name catarrh was applied almost exclusively to the common asal catarrh, but the throat, stomach, liver, bladder, kidneys and intestines are subject to catarrhal diseases as well as the nasal possages.

hadder, kidneys and intestines are subject to catarrhal distases as well as the masal passages. In fact, wherever there is mucous membrane there is a feeting ground for catarrh. The usual remedies, inhalers, sprays, douches or powders, have been practically failures, as far as anything more than temporary relief was concerned, because they simply dry up the mucous secretions, without having the remotest effect upon the blood and liver, which are the real sources of catarrhal disenses.

It has been known for some years that the radical cure of catarrha could never comparement, acting on the blood and expelling the catarrhal poison from the system.

A new internal preparation which has been on the market only a short time has met with remarkable success as a genuine, radical cure for catarrh. It may be found in any drug store, sold under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablers, large pleasant tasting lozenges, composed principally of antiseptic ingredients, Flood root, Red Gum and similar catarrh specifica. Dr. Ainsiee, in speaking of the new catarrh remedy Stuart's Catarrh Tablers, and the catarrh remedy Stuart's Catarrh Tablers, and hitty or forty patients with remarkably satisfactory results. They clear the head and threat more effectually and 'astingly than any douche or inhaler that I have ever seen, and although they are what is called a patent medicine and soil by druggists, I do not hesitate to recomment them, as I know them to be free from cocaine and opiates, and that even a little child may use them with entire sefety.

Any sufferer from nasal catarrh, throat or bronchial trouble, catarrh of the stomach, liver or bladder will find Stuart's Catarrh Tablers remorkably effective pleacant and convenient, and your druggist will tell you they are absolutely free from any !5; urbus drug.

Farmer Governor William J. Stone, receiver of the Mullamphy Savings Bank, filled sult in the Circuit Court yesterday to have conveyances of property in city blocks 30% and 24f set aside, and the property, which is valued at $12,500 to $15,000, made subject to a judgment of $18,700.40 given against Henry Klages and other divectors. The suit is directed against Emma Klages, w dow of Henry Klages; John G. Koppelman, Henry Droste and Friedrich Wiethneschier. Receiver Stone is represented by Attorneys Webb, Bougher & Pearce. The judgment was rendered in a suit brought by the receiver against the bank directors for negligence in the management of the bank's affairs. It is averred that before the bringing of the suit Klages gave a deed of trust on the property to Droste, as trustee for Welthueschier, to secure a loan of $5,000. It is also averred that Klages conveyed the property to Koppelman conveyed the property without consideration to Sira, Klages.

Arkansas Anthracite.

Arkanana Anthracite.

Not until the recent anthracite coal strike in Pennsylvania was it generally known that there was in Arkanana a hard coal field. This field, if more largely developed, would readily and amply supply the markets in St. Louis and the Middle West. Just now a company is forming in this city with a view of largely developing the Arkanasa field. Over 5,000 acres of proven anthracite coal lands have been acquired and the stock of the company, which is to be known as the Eureka Anthracite Coal and Mining Company, is being placed.

The managing of the development of the field is in the hands of Mr. E. P. Seeley, who for several years was General Manager of the Western Coal and Mining Company's properties. Mr. M. B. Conatser. President of the Conatser-Carrer Fruit Company, and H. C. Wood, a director of Roberts, Johnson & Band Shoe Company, are also interested in the organization of this company and the development of the Arkanasa coal field. Permanent quarters will be established in St. Louis in a few days.

WEDDINGS---ENGAGEMENTS---MUSICAL---RECEPTIONS---TEAS.

It was an eventful day in society yesterday. The functions consisted of weddings, receptions, teas and a musicale.

The notable wedding of the day was that of Miss Maud Wells, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. Rolla Wells, to Mr. James Clark Streett.

Mrs. James L. Blair's musicale at the Odeon in the afternoon was attended by many society ladies. WELLS-STREETT NUPTIALS.

place last night.

The Central Presbyterian Church of the city, on Garrison and Lucas avenues, was chosen as the most fitting edifice for the ceremonial, since Mr. and Mrs. Wells were married there and the Wells family has been identified with it for many years.
Palms massed in the chancel and in the organ loft just behind and a profusion of white chrysanthemums made the entire front end of the church a floral bower. Single blossoms studded the green background and added to the decorative effect.

The bridal party came in at the enst door
at 8 o'clock, proceeded down the same aisie to the altar, and, after the service, left the church by the west aisie. The bride, who was escorted by Mr. Wells, wore a white chiffon gown, ornamented with point lace, the bodice guimpe being entirely of the lace and the sleeves a skillful arrangement of satin, with "angel" effect in lace and chiffon, Her tulle vell was fastened with a half coronet of orange blossoms and worn over the face both before and after the ceremony. The bridal bouquet was a large shower of illies of the valley, tied with tulle.

Miss Julia Knapp, the maid of honor, pre-

with tulle.

Miss Julia Knapp, the maid of honor, preceded the bride, wearing white embroidered chiffon and carrying white roses in a round, loose bouquet. The bridesmaids were: Miss Florence Streett, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Susan Larkin Thomson, Miss Mary McRee, Miss Mary Hutchinson of Chicago, Miss Heien Dodd and Miss Martha Hutchin-Miss Heien Dodd and Miss Martha Hutchinson. They all wore high-necked frocks of white embroidered chiffon, with sashes of white, and carried bunches of pink roses. Brewer Eddy of New York was Mr. Streett's best man, while the ushers and groomsmen were: Graham Wilson, Ralph Simpkins, Harry Langenberg, Leslie Thompson, James L. Ford, Jr. Edgar Hallowell, Ross Glasgow, Ingram Boyd and Erastus and Lloyd Wells, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Wells wore a handsome costume of white lace, with inserts of pink panne velvet, decollete, with a diamond collar. Miss Bella Wells of Washington, D. C., were white satin, the bodice much trimmed in spangles, and many handsome jewels.

The church was crowded. Many guests, including some who went on to the reception at the Wells home in Lindell boulevard, stood during the ceremony, as the entire tion at the Wells home in Lindell boulevard, stood during the ceremony, as the entire seating capacity of the auditorium and galleries was exhausted long before the entrance of the bridal party. Society had full representation, and the display of gowns was never finer.

After an Eastern honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Streett will take up their residence in the house at No. 4224 Lindell boulevard, which was Mr. Wells's gift to his daughter.

After the programme many stayed for a bits of something toothsome and a cup of chocolate or tea. The tables were laid in the rear of the hall, surrounded by a forest of paims and trimmed in olak.

Mrs. Blair received in a toilet of royal blue French velling, the skirt and bodice ornamented with straps and diamonds of the velling over cream lace, with a small hat of white chiffon, black velvet and a white ostrich aigrette.

Not a few of the guests were men who invariably find time to attend Mrs. Blair's functions when they are focumate enough to be asked. Among the guests were:

Mr. and Mrs. Gouverneur Calboun and Mrs. F. N. Judson, Doctor and Mrs. Lauis Charvenet, Judge and Mrs. Thayer, Mrs. Sam Kennard and Miss Kennard with Mrs. Jamie Brookmire, Mrs. James L. TEA IN HONOR OF MISS LOADER.

Mrs. John J. Raleigh, No. 4126 Maryland avenue, gave a delightful tea yesterday afternoon for Miss Loader, whose marriage is to take place next week. The cards were marked "informal," and a spirit of much sociability as well as informality pervaded the afternoon, tince all the guests belong to a little coterie of the bride-elect's intimates, as well as those of the hostess.

The house was arranged in pink flowers, roses predominating. The dining-room was a mass of pink blossoms, with delicate greens. Two young girls not yet out presided at the table-Miss Vera Widen and Miss Florence Longstreth.

Mrs. Raleigh were an imported gown of white Irish lace combined with Cluny in mysterious and effective manner, Much white chiffon and a very little black velvet added to the ensemble. Miss Loader wore a most becoming costume of thin white Swiss hand-embroidered in grapes.

About forty women called at 4 o'clock. Mrs. F. A. Steer, Mrs. John Leahy, Mrs. F. H. May, Mrs. Harry Papin, Miss Rockwood and Miss Anderson came without their hats. SAMETAG-SCHARFF WEDDING.

Plans for Church Wedding.

Lee A. Landau and Miss Edna Polskee decided yesterday aftermoon not to wait until December to get married with the pomp of a church affair, but to go to Clayton and have the ceremony performed immediately. Acting on the decision, they reached the county seat at 4 o'clock, the phoned to their parents of their intentions, got a marriage license and were on their way back to St. Louis as husband and wife fifteen minutes later. The marriage ceremony was performed by Judge Fred L. Kerth.

Landau is 21 years old. His bride is one year his junior. They have known each other three years and their engagement was formally announced several weeks ago. Parents on both sides decided to have a church wedding and the young couple apparently acquiesced in the arrangements, but the wait became irksome.
